Food Stops:

2 on the Classic 150km/Short Cut 130km (at 50km Rhayader and 100km Newbridge)

1 on the 80km (at Bwlch Y Sarnu) – new for 2017 we are using the cyclist friendly Glyndwr's Way Cafe

PLEASE NOTE – all riders will pass through Bwlch Y Sarnu but only the 80km riders will get free food at the Cafe (hand in the ticket you'll receive at registration). Other riders can of course stop but will have to pay – their free food is 15km further on in Rhayader

80km only Food Stop at Bwlch:

130/150km riders have their own food stop in Rhayader 15km further on. 130/150km riders can call in at the Glyndwr's Cafe but will have to pay – your free food is in Rhayader.

Rhayader Food Stop

1st stop for 130/150km riders – this is the traditional Epic food stop on the left as you leave Rhayader. Go around the back to find the entrance.

If you reach this food stop after 11.30am you should consider going on the Short Cut route, and after 12 you should definitely go on the Short Cut.

2nd Food Stop

Newbridge on Wye – stop is slightly off course at the Primary School. Retrace your wheeltracks to get back on course.

Food on return to Knighton – FREE baked potato and chilli available in the Community Centre plus teas and coffees

What to bring with you:

Roadworthy bike – please check before coming and particularly check the brakes – one hazardous descent will test them fully (Plush Hill Cycle shop will be on hand first thing to fix any last minute problems)

Food and drink to keep you going (use the food stops for top ups)

Spares – have at least 2 spare inner tubes, there are a limited amount of inner tubes available at food stops (£5)

Your climbing legs – if you are having a bad day consider taking the Short Cut 130km. All riders getting to the 150/130km split after 12 should take the Short Cut (otherwise you may be very late back)

Timing:

StuWeb Timing Services are doing the timing. You'll be able to print out your own time immediately after you have finished. Times for everyone are expected to be available by the evening on the StuWeb website.

Standards – be sure to check the Gold, Silver and Bronze target times for your age group.
